monuments

Burgos Cathedral is a large and ancient church. It has very tall towers and is one of the most important monuments in Spain.

The Alcázar of Segovia: This castle looks like something out of a fairy tale. It has tall towers and was a royal residence for many years.

Ponferrada Castle: This large castle was built by the Knights Templar. It has strong walls and can be visited today.

The Walls of Ávila: These very old walls surround the city. They have many towers and are very well preserved.

gastronomy

- Cured meats: Burgos black pudding (made with rice)
- Yemas de Santa Teresa (Ávila): Small spheres of egg yolk and sugar, probably the most famous sweet in the region.
- Torreznos de Soria: A super simple but delicious dish.
- Roast suckling pig: It is a pig roasted in the oven until the skin is crispy. It is very typical in Segovia.
- Sopa Castilla: It is a hot soup made with bread, garlic, paprika, and egg. It is a simple and very traditional dish.

María Martín-Granizo Ferreiro, born with only one leg, has won world championships in adaptive surfing and Spanish championships in adaptive skiing. She combines elite sports with her studies in nutrition and promotes motivation for people with disabilities. Her current goal is to participate in the Milan-Cortina 2026 Winter Paralympic Games, continuing to be an example of overcoming adversity and perseverance.
